

PRE-CONFERENCE INSTITUTE 2019

WESTERN UNIVERSITY: JULY 8TH AND 9TH

The International ACAC Pre-Conference Institute 2019 offers professional development opportunities for beginning career professionals to gain knowledge in focused areas, while networking with colleagues from both sides of the desk in an intimate venue. Selected faculty and committee chairs provide leadership in designing the courses with intended learning outcomes that align with voiced needs of International ACAC membership.

This year's Conference will be hosted by Western University in London, Ontario Canada.

Benefits of Attending the Pre-Conference Institute Include:

- Two streams: Admissions and International University Counseling
- Intimate setting, allowing for concentrated professional development
- Networking with new and veteran colleagues from both sides of the desk
- Knowledgeable faculty who have years of experience and a passion for sharing
- Flexibility in tailoring your learning experience with multiple course options
- Creating a professional support network to best support you in your role

High School Stream: International University Counseling (0-2 years experience)

Intended for counseling professionals new to guiding students in their transition to post-secondary education. Topics such as building and organizing a university counseling office, understanding adolescent wellness, building relationships and the use of technology in support of university counseling services will be offered. In addition, country specific sessions that focus on advising students destined for Canada, the Netherlands, the UK and US.

Admissions Stream (0-5 years experience)

Intended for new admissions and recruitment counselors, as well as more seasoned staff (up to five years of experience). Topics will include strategic travel planning, professional growth and skill development, the use of data in admissions, online marketing and engagement, and evaluation of international curricula.

Cost: $135 USD

Registration: The Pre-Conference Institute is offered to International ACAC Conference attendees only; register for the Institute as part of your Conference registration.

We look forward to welcoming you to what will be an exciting and educational professional development experience. Should you have any questions about the 2019 Pre-Conference Institute, please contact us.
