

2022 International ACAC Annual Awards

Distinguished Service Award

Megan Mankerian-Stem
Director International Enrollment
Creighton University

This award recognizes a person who has provided International ACAC with unique and outstanding service to our association. As a member-run organization, International ACAC relies on the time, talent, and dedication of its membership to realize its professional mission. Recipients of this award have contributed in invaluable and incalculable ways to the success, growth, and improvement of International ACAC.

Members who nominated Megan for the Distinguished Service Award shared these comments:

- She exemplifies dedication, involvement and service to international education, recruitment and admissions.
- She is selfless and does everything for the benefit of others.
- She is a relentless advocate for our profession and true travel warrior.
- She is always the first to make a meaningful connection for the greater good of students and the future of our profession.
- Megan's commitment to service is exemplary through...being a consistent first point of contact to help counselors and fellow university representatives with recruitment and outreach strategies.
- She always provides constructive-critical insight to help International ACAC meet its goals and bring attention to member needs, especially when it comes to access to counseling resources.
- Megan has been a member of our organization for more than 7 years and in that time, including her young career has contributed so much and I can't think of anyone more deserving of this recognition.

International ACAC is proud to award Megan the Distinguished Service Award!
