

International ACAC members from Los Angeles joined together for a beach birthday party near the iconic Santa Monica pier. LA put on a great weather since it was sunny and warm (temperatures in the high 20C) - not bad for early February! Members from several area universities and organizational members came together to enjoy snacks, a huge birthday cake, and some beverages too!

