

Overseas Association for College Admission Counseling

A Unique Association of Counseling Professionals

Serving Students Overseas by Connecting Counselors and College Admission Professionals

We invite you to join us for the 1997 year

The Overseas Association for College Admission Counseling (OACAC) is a professional association which brings together those who work with students as they make their plans for post-secondary education. Membership in OACAC distinguishes you as a counselor or admissions officer who is concerned about the future of education in the nation. A special concern of this organization is those students attending secondary schools and colleges overseas, interested in eventually attending further education in the United States.

Please consider joining this organization of educators dedicated to improving the transition process for all overseas students.

Why join the Overseas ACAC?

- ☞ You will receive the membership directory with up to date lists of counselors in international schools overseas
- ☞ You will be invited to participate in the annual summer meeting to discuss issues related to counseling in overseas schools, meet other counselors, and receive up-to-date information on trends, financial aid, especially related to international students
- ☞ You will receive the Overseas newsletter with the latest information, news and useful information to help in the counselling process
- ☞ You will contribute by participating in activities which affect the profession and be represented by your delegates in the NACAC national assembly, and by your officers at national NACAC leadership conferences.
