

STATEMENT ON NEPALI STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP CANCELLATIONS

International ACAC....

- acknowledges the incredible work of a small group of International ACAC members to counsel and advocate for impacted Nepali students, students who had significant scholarship offers revoked due to no fault of their own in April of this year.
- prides itself on the grass-roots activities that facilitate global interaction among counselors and institutions in support of secondary students transitioning to higher education while promoting professional standards that fosters ethical and social responsibility.
- acknowledges International ACAC needs stronger systems to support members who are working with students facing crisis. We are actively working on a crisis management plan. International ACAC has formed an interim crisis response team that will serve as a working group to work as efficiently as possible to respond to events that impact our membership. And we will continue to make available our current resources be it our ability to host current event webinars, share critical information on our website, or invite our members to utilize the power of our community through our Social Media channels.
- identifies structural and communication gaps between International ACAC and NACAC concerning this event's admissions practices investigation. These will be addressed in direct communication with NACAC to determine how our Admissions Practices committees can work together and better address cases that have an international impact.
